

To His Excellency<sup>28</sup>

Nov 11/1864-

Metadata, citation and similar papers at

Rectorado de la Universidad de Buenos Aires

1. George Street,
Manston House,
E.C.

23rd Dec 1863.

My dear Excellency,

Nothing new has occurred with regard to Buenos Ayrean Affairs since I last wrote on the 8th inst and I therefore do not write officially by this packet. The intelligence of the Provincial Chambers having negatived the contemplated foreign loan for the redemption of the currency has been followed by an improvement of 2 per Cent in Buenos Ayres Bonds which are now at 92 to 94. The Northern Railway Shares are also slightly better at  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{3}{4}$  pm

I am sorry to say that Mr. Wheelwright is still ill. The money pressure which has delayed his proceedings seems to show symptoms of abatement, and he will, I doubt not, seize the moment to bring his undertaking before the public and establish it on a safe footing.

I inclose some clips from the Financial articles of The Times which may prove interesting to you, and I have the honour to be
My dear Excellency
Very faithfully yours
M. B. Sampson.